SERIES I

TOWNS IV PART I

THE CASE, LOCKWOOD & BRAINARD CO
HARTFORD, CONN

PREFACE

These volumes have been prepared and published by a Committee of the Connecticut Society of the Order of Founders and Patriots. This Committee was appointed at a meeting of the Society held in New Haven, October 23, 1914, with instructions to submit to the Society a definite recommendation for publishing some of the ancient vital records of the State. At a meeting held in New Haven, January 30, 1915, the Committee recommended that the Society undertake the publication of the vital records of the Town of New Haven as those of one of the most ancient, as well as perhaps the most important, of the municipalities of the State. The recommendation was approved by the Society, financial provision for the work was made, and the Committee instructed to carry out the project.

In the execution of its work the Committee has endeavored to secure the utmost accuracy of reproduction in spelling, punctuation and completeness of record, so as to put the reader in complete possession of all that could be gleaned from the original.

These volumes are designed to continue the series of Connecticut Vital Records begun by the Connecticut Historical Society with the records of Bolton and Vernon. The series includes, besides this, the Vital Records of Norwich (two volumes) issued in 1913 by the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Connecticut, and the Vital Records of Woodstock published by The Case, Lockwood and Brainard Company in 1915. It is hoped that other patriotic societies will be moved to carry on the work by publishing the vital records of other Connecticut towns. The State is peculiarly fortunate in the unusual antiquity and completeness of its vital records; consequently it is eminently desirable that the State itself should assume the task of the preservation and publication of these most valuable and interesting records.

The purpose of these volumes is to present everything contained in the town records of New Haven in the nature of vital records previous to the time when these records began to be kept under the more careful and elaborate system now employed. The vital records of New Haven herewith reproduced are contained in six volumes. Copies of the early volumes have been made for ordinary use. These volumes have, however, been printed from the original records.

The Committee desires to express its gratitude to Mr. Robert E. Lee of New Haven, Registrar of Vital Statistics, for his helpfulness, courtesy and assistance during the course of the work.

PREFATORY NOTE

For all matters relating to the general history of the early days of the Town and Colony of New Haven, the reader is referred to Atwater's admirable History of the Colony of New Haven (second edition, Meriden, 1902). New Haven was settled in 1638, and was named in 1640. The original town was much larger than at present. Wallingford was set off in 1670; Branford in 1685; Woodbridge in 1784; East Haven in 1785; Hamden in 1786; North Haven in 1786; and Orange in 1822. Naturally the vital records of these towns, formed wholly or in part from the old Town of New Haven, will be found in the New Haven records up to the time of their separate incorporation.

The population of New Haven at the several censuses during the last century and a half has been as follows:

1756 . . .	5,085
1774 . . .	8,295
1782 . . .	7,966
1790 . . .	4,484
1800 . . .	5,157
1810 . . .	6,967
1820 . . .	8,327
1830 . . .	10,678
1840 . . .	14,390
1850 . . .	20,345
1860 . . .	39,267
1870 . . .	50,840
1880 . . .	62,882
1890 . . .	86,045
1900 . . .	108,027
1910 . . .	133,605

The decrease in population between 1782 and 1790 is, of course, accounted for by the setting off of Woodbridge, East Haven, North Haven and Hamden within that period.

A Historical Catalogue of the Members of the First Church of Christ, 1639-1914, has been published under the direction of Professor Franklin Bowditch Dexter. This will be found useful in supplementing the vital records of the town, as will also the records of the other ancient parishes of New Haven, such as those of the United Church, which dates from 1742, and of Trinity Church, which was organized about 1752.

VOL. I.

1649-1750

[This volume consists of a number of record books, quarto in size, with several different paginations. These books have been bound in one and renumbered. The following record follows the probable original chronological arrangement but the present pagination. The sequence in which the book is at present arranged is not in all cases followed.

The information supplied in brackets is taken from an alphabetically arranged copy of this volume now in constant use.]
